

SPECIAL REPORT

Nurture your creativity

Killarney's Europe Hotel & Resort provides an ideal setting for any conference

VENUES of extraordinary natural beauty have always inspired original thought. The Europe Hotel & Resort is certainly surrounded by natural beauty. Marvel as the waters of Killarney's largest lake, Lough Lein reflect the wilderness of Kerry's magnificent McGillicuddy Reeks mountain range.

This is the perfect place to nurture your creativity. The Europe Hotel & Resort offers a Conference and Event Centre that is second to none. The five-star hotel also boasts ESPA, one of the top spas in Ireland.

The perfect location

The Conference Centre is designed to cater for every practical need. It offers advanced technical capabilities to ensure the smooth running of any conference or event with the added reassurance of complimentary Wi-Fi internet access available throughout the hotel.

Offering state-of-the-art conference facilities, The Europe has a choice of eight meeting rooms, each of which is flooded with natural daylight through floor-to-ceiling windows. Every meeting room is equipped with its own individual sound system, DVD and CD player, wireless and wired microphones, ceiling-mounted LCD projector and automatic screen. The lighting, curtains and black-out blinds in each room are easily controlled by individual wireless touch pad control systems.

The choice is yours

The Ballroom is designed to be flexible. It is capable of holding a large conference for up to 600 people or a gala event for up to 400. With accessibility among its major features, loading and unloading equipment is easy and with numerous ceiling hanging points making this room ideal for car launches or large entertainment events.

The Mangerton Room can hold up to 320 delegates as a whole, and is sub-divisible into four separate rooms of equal size. The Innisfallen Room can cater to 190 guests and is also sub-divisible into three meeting rooms of varying sizes.

The Boardroom, with its circular design, is ideal for private executive meetings of up to 12 people and is equipped with a drop down screen for presentations, while exhibition space is available for up to 30 exhibitors in the dedicated area which is located central to all meeting rooms. All meeting rooms and exhibition spaces have direct access to large outdoor terraces which offer patio heaters and terrace furniture.

In control

Conference organisers can use the purpose-built Conference Administration Office for the duration of the conference which is suitable for up to eight staff. This room has a direct dial telephone and can be equipped with a PC, fax machine and photocopier on request. The hotels in-house technician is available to ensure the smooth running of your conference. Conference delegates can also make use of the Media Centre which has four PC stations with complimentary internet access, designed to make business a pleasure.

Relax and enjoy

Outside of its state-of-the-art Conference Centre, The Europe Hotel & Resort offers a wealth of leisure activities. Luxuriate after a long day in the exclusive ESPA at The Europe, or cement your professional relationships on one of the two adjacent Killarney golf courses, each of which offer special discounted rates to guests of the hotel.

Or, if you would like to try something a little different, fishing, complimentary indoor tennis and horse riding are all available. You could explore the near-by Muckross House and Gardens, or for a truly exciting adventure, a visit to the Ring of Kerry, the Gap of Dunloe or a drive to the famous Dingle Peninsula will never disappoint.

Luxury

The Europe Hotel & Resort provides unbeatable luxury accommodation and top class dining facilities in Co Kerry and has recently been named Best Hotel Spa of the Year' (Western Europe & Scandinavia) at the World Spa & Wellness Awards 2014. The hotel was also named 'Best Hotel Spa of the Year 2013' at the European Hospitality Awards, and 'Overall Winner of Best Resort Hotel 2013' at the National Hospitality Awards. Everything you could possibly want to create the perfect event, conference or creative weekend is right here in Killarney at The Europe Hotel & Resort.

The Europe Hotel & Resort

Fossa, Killarney, Co. Kerry

t: 064 6671300
e: hotelsales@liebherr.com
w: www.theeurope.com